

LONGFORD DISTRICT

WW1 Honour Roll consisting of typed names on standard printed paper with the Union Jack and the Australian Flag on either side of the words "Roll of Honour", the name of battles are inscribed on the pillars at the edges. The Commonwealth coat of arms is at the bottom.

A copy of this Honour Roll is in the custody of the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery, Community History Museum in Launceston.

There appears to be duplicated names and names without forenames or initials this suggests it may have some errors. It is suggested that confirmation of the names on this Honour Roll be confirmed from other sources. Please note these names are not in alphabetical order.
