	40th Battalion A. I. F.	632	Sergeant (Temp. Regimental Sergeant Major). HARRY GILLAM.	has This Warrant Officer served with conspicuous ability and gallantry as a sergeant both in BELGIUM and FRANCE from November 1916 until the present date. At PASSEBERGHEM, on 12th October 1917, he commanded a Post which was ordered to hold a portion of our line which was being pressed back by the enemy. He and his men held on throughout that afternoon and during the night with both their flanks in the air, and so permitted our line to be consolidated in rear. At all times, his bravery and initiative have been of the very highest standard. A. J. Major General Commanding 10th Australian Inf. Bde.	A.
