NORTHERN MIDLANDS COUNCIL

PEDESTRIAN CROSSING

Campbell Town

The Northern Midlands Council is pleased to see the Liberal Party promising funds towards the development and construction of a highly requested pedestrian crossing on the Campbell Town main road. The Liberals have promised $1.5 million towards the construction of the project, if they are re – elected as a majority government in the 2018 Tasmanian State Election.

“I am pleased to see the Liberal Party including this project in their election promises, there has been a massive demand from the community in Campbell Town to consider safer crossing options for the whole Campbell Town community” said Northern Midlands Council Mayor David Downie.

The Northern Midlands Council is also pleased to see that $1 million has also been promised towards edge - widening along the Evandale Road from the Launceston Airport towards Evandale. This will benefit not only Northern Midlands residents but also visitors and tourists in the area.

The Northern Midlands Council is pleased to see the Liberal Party considering our communities and their safety within their election promises.
